THE ALUMNAE NEWS

DEDICATED TO PRESIDENT M. L. COMBS

WINTER EDITION, 1954

MRS. JAMES HUGHES
(Eloise Caverlee) '40, President

MISS GWEN AMORY, '52
Vice Pres. and Chairman of Homecoming

MORGAN LaFAYETTE COMBS, B.A., M.A.,
Ed.M., Ed.D., Ph.D., President

To All Alumnae:

We are looking forward to seeing all of you on April 2, 3, and 4, for a grand weekend. It cannot be a success without YOU here. Two important items: 1. Please send Polly your reservations immediately. 2. Pay special attention to the report of the Constitution Committee found on page 3 of the Bulletin. It will save much time and talk if everyone comes to the general meeting thoroughly acquainted with the proposed changes in the Constitution. Gwen and Polly have planned a superb schedule! We don't want to miss any part of it! Your studying this ahead of time will be a big help. The news from the chapters is simply wonderful. In our next bulletin, we want detailed reports from each one about the work you are doing.

Make plans now to attend Homecoming . . . and DON'T FORGET . . . Send in those reservations! !

Sincerely,
ELOISE C. HUGHES

A "Pre-Thank You"

Just a word of thanks to Gwen and Polly for all the hard work, thought, and time they have put into the preparation of this schedule. They have worked under difficulty . . . distance, communications by correspondence, changing of places for different events, and many other things. Polly has helped with this, in addition to her regular heavy load. We are fortunate to have such fine people who give unselfishly and unselfishly of themselves, so that we may have a successful Homecoming. They have done and are doing more than their share. May each of us do our part to make Homecoming a big success.

POEM

Getting together is Beginning,
Thinking together is Unity
Keeping together is Progress
Working together is Success.

Congratulations, President Combs!!!

On January 21, 1954, President Combs completed twenty-five years as President of Mary Washington College of the University of Virginia. It has been said: "This college is the length and shadow of Morgan L. Combs". Molly Vaughan Parrish, '29, saluted Dr. Combs as "a man of vision who clothed his dreams with reality".

President Combs, we appreciate everything you have done to make Mary Washington one of the outstanding colleges of the world. We wish you continued happiness and success as President.

ALUMNAE OFFICE

We thought you might like to know that the furnishing of the new Alumnae office, has been in charge of Mrs. Camilla Moody Payne. She has given much time and thought for this. One Alumna sent a check for fifty dollars. Thanks to some of the chapters and individuals, we have a lovely sofa, desk, files, and two chairs. The drapes are in the process of being made. This is your office, so please feel that you have a part in it, by sending a contribution to the Alumnae Office. Our goal was that the office be furnished and paid for by Homecoming. Let's do it!

CLASS AGENTS

Many of you have requested class news. Will you please contact your class agent and have her give us news. We would like to list the news by classes. All of the agents were requested to send news for this bulletin. Some have replied. Because, however, of this being the Homecoming Edition, it was impossible to put news of individuals from the questionnaires. It is our hope to compile a large bulletin in the near future, containing all this news. So, those of you who haven't sent news in, here is another chance. PLEASE, CLASS AGENTS, GIVE US SOME HELP! ! If you are an agent, please do not let the girls down. They are anxious to have a reunion. So many of them have written us they have not been contacted. Too, you members of the class can contact your class agent. Her name and address is listed in the Homecoming schedule.

CLASS OF 1934:

Homecoming this year is an important event for us. Our class is having it's first reunion in years. We'll meet in Virginia Hall at 10:30 on Saturday morning. Plan to be on the campus by that time or you'll miss out on some of the goings-on.

I would like to contact each member of our class but the list I have is antiquated in that all are listed as they entered college. Many changes have occurred since then. Please send me any information you have—maiden name, married name, address, et cetera. Let's all pitch in and make this a super event.

MARGARET LAMBERT, Class Agent '34

Norfolk, Virginia

CLASS OF 1908:

Hey, hey! All 1908 reunioners:

Here I've taken on this job of acting as your class agent and I want very much to do a real job. But I need your help. I need to know ahead of time, as far as possible just who will be at Homecoming this Spring. And if there is anything special that you would like to have included in the program, tell me that too. We hope the reunion program will add to your enjoyment of the weekend and this information will help in the planning of it.

Especially I want to speak to the real '08-ers. Do let me know where you are, whether or not you can be at homecoming. We miss you and want to include you.

MRS. WM. LAMASON
(Polly Graves), Executive Secretary

THE EXECUTIVE SECRETARY'S PAGE

Your Executive Secretary wants to thank you for the lovely Christmas cards sent to the office. We really enjoyed them and your thoughtfulness.

We want to thank you also for the wonderful response from the statements that were mailed last June. We thought you did not know your dues were past due and knew you would want to bring them up to date.

The questionnaires are just rolling in and we are loaded with news from them. We plan to have a huge news bulletin next fall and cover all the questionnaires. We would like to publish an Alumnae Directory from them, if finances will afford it. If your questions have not been answered, please give me a little more time. I will answer them as soon as I can.

I detest to always mention money, but you know as well as all of us that we must pay our dues if we want to enjoy the privileges of this organization. If your dues are not paid we mail you one bulletin a year; if they are paid, we mail you three bulletins a year. If you have moved or changed your name and do not receive the bulletins, we are sorry, but what can we do about it? Only a month ago we had to take out of our files almost a thousand names because the mail was being returned to us. We must know your address.

DUES

Do you know how much the dues are? They are five dollars a year to be paid to the Alumnae Office if unaffiliated with a local chapter. If you are affiliated with a local chapter, five dollars dues shall be paid to the local chapter treasurer and three dollars shall be forwarded to the Alumnae Office. Life membership is fifty dollars and may be paid in full or in five installments of ten dollars over a period of five years. Dues should be paid for an alumna to attend homecoming, but no dues are included in homecoming registration fee. Dues should be sent to the Alumnae Office, Box 1315, College Station, Fredericksburg, Va. Please use maiden and married names.

FOR SALE

We have plenty playing cards and note paper for sale. The cards are plastic coated and are $2.50 for a double deck. The note paper is $1.00 a box. We can mail your orders if you will send the money.

FOUND

Will the girl who has lost a Mary Washington ring please contact this office. One has been found.

ALUMNAE DAUGHTER'S CLUB

There is a very active Alumnae Daughter's Club at the college. Miss Ruth Russell from Catlett, Virginia, is the President. She is doing a grand job with the girls. They have about twenty-five members. They are having a dance on February 20.

ALUMNAE CUP

For the third consecutive year the Alumnae Cup has been awarded to Miss Mary Hill Chilton, an outstanding student in art. Miss Chilton is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Chilton of Remington, Virginia. Her mother was Mary Hill of the Class of 1928.

NEW CHAPTERS

So many of you are interested in organizing new chapters and we are delighted. Please keep planning it and just as soon as we can we will send you all the material. We are waiting for copies of the constitution. So many of you are ready for chapters in your section. You only need five paid members to start a chapter, so there is no reason why we cannot have chapters all over the country. The chapters we have are having so much fun and accomplishing so much.

NEWS FROM CHAPTERS

Alexandria: Even though this chapter is not a year old they are doing excellent work and having more fun. Give us your technique, Alexandria. President: Mrs. Betsy Hildrup Morris, 809 Beverly Drive, Alexandria.

Delaware: No report. Contact Mrs. Ann McCaskill Libis, Garden Court Apartments, Dover, Delaware.

Eastern Shore: This is a wonderful chapter and with Effie Fuqua and Marge Copes working they can accomplish anything. Your executive secretary had the pleasure of visiting them last week and if you have never been to that country, you have never lived. It is lovely! They are working toward a scholarship to send a girl to Mary Washington next year. They think nothing of traveling fifty miles to an alumnae meeting and they have so much fun when they get together. Keep up the good work! If you live near and do not belong, you are missing something. President: Mrs. Effie Berry Fuqua, Cape Charles. Director: Mrs. C. C. Powell, 634 Randolph Ave., Cape Charles.

Fredericksburg: They have such interesting programs. The last one was an interior decorator from Richmond, who gave an inspirational discussion of decorating the homes. At Christmas they always enjoy Miss Eppes' Choral Club. Their object is to help the new school for the Retarded in Fredericksburg. Thank you for the wonderful donation for the furnishings of the office. President: Mrs. Genilla B. Pates, 1418 Augustine Avenue, Fredericksburg. Director: Mrs. Louise Otley Graves, 1427 Franklin Street, Fredericksburg.

Lynchburg: There is hopes of a revival in Lynchburg. Who can help Miss Luise B. Davis of 4509 Hilltop Drive, Lynchburg?

Maryland-Suburban: They have joined the Associated Women's Alumnae Clubs of Washington. They are very active and have wonderful programs. They are making a profit by selling address labels. They have a hostess gift and the member who guesses closest to it gets the gift. They have a big organization. Their president is Miss Doris V. Steele of 8717 Plymouth Street, Silver Spring, Maryland. The Director is Mrs. Elizabeth T. Cormack, 35H Ridge Road, Greenbelt, Maryland.

New Jersey: Miss Mary Rita O'Rourke of 1022 Rose Street, Plainfield, New Jersey, is the president and according to the mail we receive of girls wanting to join this chapter they will have a big group soon. Mrs. Carol F. Abbott of 942 Fernwood Avenue, Plainfield, New Jersey is the director. They are a working group in New Jersey. You will be hearing more from them soon.

New York: Miss Aileen Louise Hirschman of 825 Gramatan Avenue, Mount Vernon, New York, is anxious to meet everyone in New York. Aileen is doing an excellent job there. She thinks there are enough girls in New York to have chapters in various sections. Let her hear from you. Aileen can help you in anything.

The Nina Bushnell Chapter of the Northern Neck: Mickie R. Crittenden, President, Heathsville, Virginia, and Mrs. Lee Marsh Lewis, Director, of Reedville, Virginia, have a grand chapter. They have such interesting programs. They keep in touch with our own Mrs. Bushnell too. They might like to know that I went to see Mrs. Bushnell at Christmas and missed her by a very few minutes. I even felt I had seen her by being so close to her. This was during the Christmas holidays. I carried her candy as a token of our love for her. Mickie and Lee, we are looking forward to seeing you soon.

Norfolk Chapter: I know you met Mrs. Jean Moore Basnight, the President of this chapter, at the board meeting. Her address is 315 Knox Road, Norfolk 13, Virginia. She has that chapter wide awake with activities and interesting programs. They are so happy to have Mary Blanche Worrell back with them. She has been living in Japan. Mary Lou Vollmer has a new daughter and has moved to Ft. Worth, Texas. Their scholarship fund is supplemented by selling homemade candy. Don't forget their plates of Seacobeck Hall for $2.00. Best wishes to Nan Cook Ferebee, now Mrs. Thomas A. Bond, Jr.

The director in Norfolk is Miss Margaret Lambert of 5209 Blue-stone Avenue, Norfolk.

North Carolina: They are still struggling for a chapter and more members in North Carolina. The President is Miss Nora Bryant, 211 1/2 Montlieu Avenue, High Point, North Carolina. The director is Mrs. Elizabeth Stallings Sharpe of 1312 Euclid Avenue, Charlotte 3, North Carolina. Please North Carolina girls get on the band wagon and help Nora and Elizabeth.

Peninsula Chapter: Thank you Peninsula for the donation for the office furniture. Molly Vaughan Parrish is President of the Peninsula chapter. Her address is 2000 Roanoke Avenue, Newport News. The director is Mrs. Beverly Youngs Robinson of 31 Hampton Roads Avenue, Hampton. They are doing big things too and if any of you chapters want to know how to do things follow in their footsteps. They really do them. Dr. Laura Voelkel Sumner spoke to them in December. She is Professor of Greek and Latin at Mary Washington. They had a grand time and enjoyed seeing slides of Mary Washington. We have a set of these slides that we can mail you if you care for them.

Pennsylvania: Miss Mary Elizabeth Hoffman of 115 Ashton Road, Upper Darby, Pennsylvania, is President. She needs some help. Come on Pennsylvania girls. Please do not let her down. What are we going to do about this chapter?

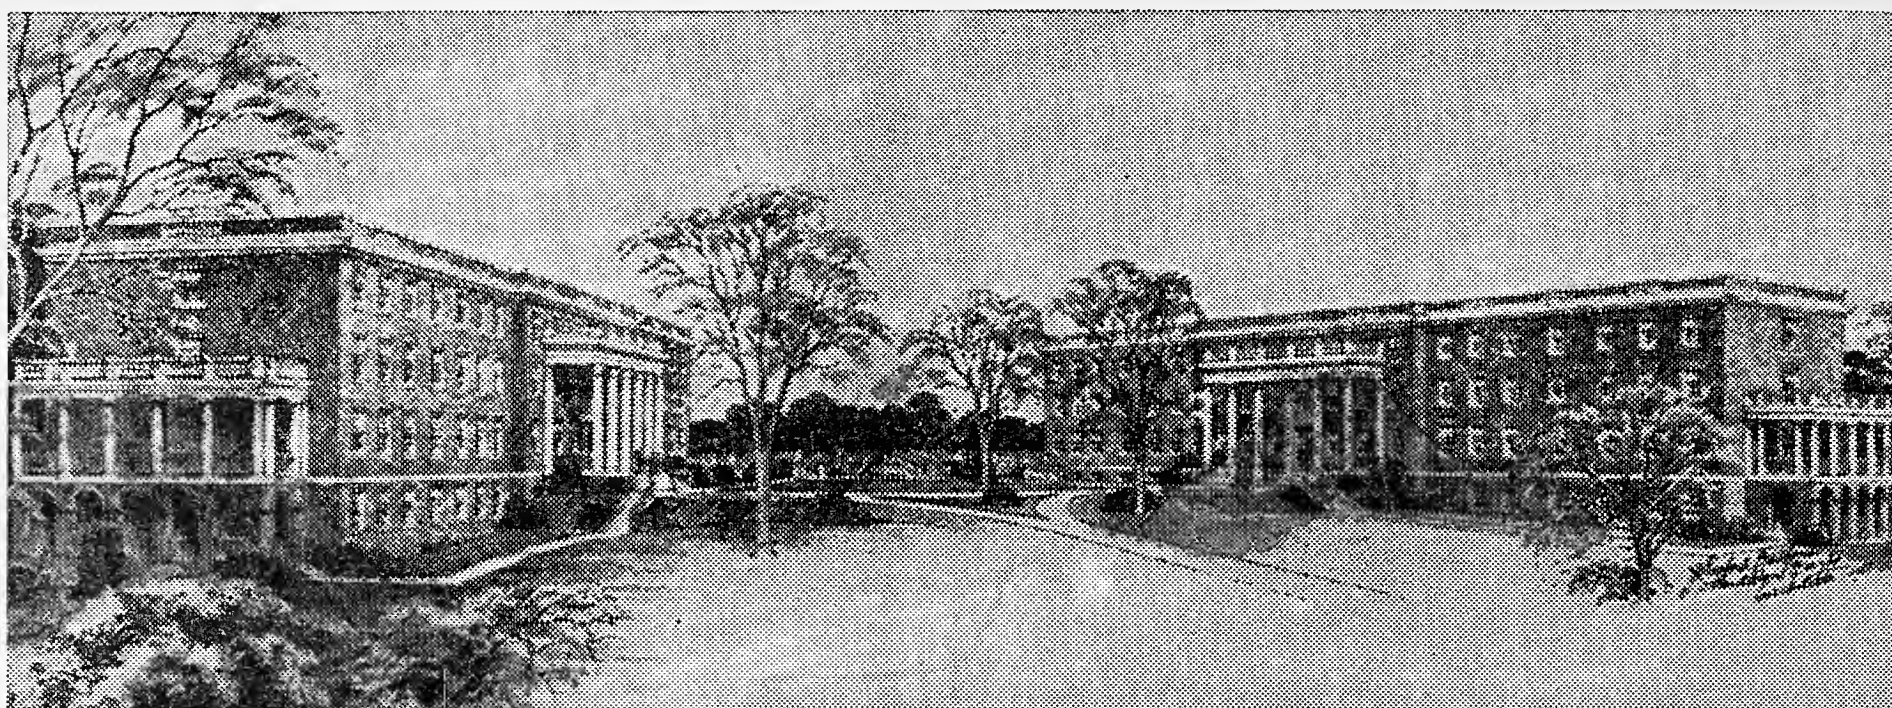

Puerto Rico: Although Lillian Vego de Jenks of 134 F Avenue, FEFI, Urganizacion Roosevelt, Hato Rey, Puerto Rico, is still President and Miss Alicia Rivera of 207 Jose de Diego Street, Rio Piedras, Puerto Rico, is director, Carmen Z. Catoni is not idle. She is the corresponding secretary. They write that they will be very disappointed if anyone from Mary Washington visits Puerto Rico and they do not contact them and let them show them around. Isn't that nice? You remember Provita Keelan Piovanetti at homecoming. She has a new daughter born January 8. Her husband, Dr. Simon P. Piovanetti, is taking a specialized course in Philadelphia this year. Congratulations Provi! Carmen's baby has been sick and we certainly hope he is better. This chapter is helping the Deborrah Home for orphans by supplying clothes for them, helping a home for the aged, and El Pueblo del Nino, a home for boys. They plan to award a medal to the senior with the highest grades in Spanish at Mary Washington during graduation. Keep up the good work girls.

Roanoke: Ruth Spradlin and Glade Burnette are trying to wake up the chapter in Roanoke. Please contact them and help them get started. Mrs. Floyd B. Thomas of 319 Mapleton Avenue, N. E., Roanoke, Virginia, is the director.

Richmond: Ginny Lee Downer, 2327 Monument Avenue, Richmond, is the President and Mrs. Phyllis S. Duvall, 5404 Fitzhugh Avenue, Richmond, is the Director. They had a big Christmas dance. I guess you saw their pictures in the papers and read about them. Come on Ginny give us something more to read about.

Suffolk: Mrs. Mary Briscoe Butler, 104 North Broad Street, Suffolk, and Mrs. Frances Lyon Austin, Director, "Riverview" Suffolk, are anxious to keep the Suffolk girls busy.

Washington: Mrs. Judith Davis Clardy, 1014 South Wayne Street, Arlington, and Mrs. Louise Luter Parker, Director, 1222 Allen Avenue, Falls Church, Virginia, need every girl living in Washington to help them make the chapter rolls complete. They would appreciate your calling them if you do not belong to a chapter. They are doing big things.
